3. Personnel Management (PM)

A Temporary Promotion for La Plata County Program Analyst In Charge (PAIC)

Sam Montoya, District Director, presented the Acting State Committee (STC) with the request to temporarily promote Madeline (Maddy) Keck, Program Analyst, to Acting County Executive Director (A. CED) also known as Program Analyst in Charge (PAIC). This temporary promotion was to start pay period 22 which is after her 1-year anniversary of being a grade 9 (October 24, 2025) and will not exceed past April 1, 2026.

The La Plata FSA Office County Executive Director (CED) is out of the office on extended leave; the La Plata County Committee (COC) has requested the Acting Colorado STC to temporarily promote Madeline (Maddy) Keck to be Acting CED also known as Program Analyst in Charge (PAIC).

According to Handbook 27-PM (Rev. 2) Amend 3, Par 379C, the State Committee (STC) must concur with the County Committee request to temporarily promote a Program Analyst to Acting CED with the title of Program Analyst in Charge (PAIC).

If confirmed by the Acting STC, Madeline (Maddy) Keck will return to her previous position of Program Analyst at a grade CO-9 after the PAIC position has expired.

After discussing the request and reviewing applicable policies and procedures, the Acting Colorado State Committee confirmed the La Plata County Committee recommendation to temporarily promote Madeline (Maddy) Keck to Program Analyst in Charge (PAIC) not to exceed April 1, 2026. The Acting STC will submit this request to the Deputy Administrator of Field Operations for concurrence.
